

New approaches to knowledge mobilisation

Wednesday 4–Thursday 5 July 2018 Sydney, Australia

CONFERENCE DAY ONE Wednesday 4 July

7.30am	Registrations open
9.00am	Conference welcome Professor Sally Redman AO, Chief Executive Officer, Sax Institute Welcome to Country Uncle Ray Davison
9.40am	Co-production: fact or fiction? Keynote address: Professor Nicholas Mays, Policy Innovation Research Unit, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine Panel discussion chaired by Professor Don Nutbeam, Sax Institute with: Professor Mays; Professor Billie Giles-Corti, RMIT University; Professor David O. Irving, Australian Red Cross Blood Service; and Professor Sandra Eades, University of Melbourne
11:10am	Morning break
11.40am	Concurrent session 1
	1A What's working in co-production? Chair: Professor Billie Giles-Corti	1B Tools and resources to support the use of research in policy and practice Chair: Associate Professor Mary Haines	1C Workshop: Knowledge mobilisation to improve health services and outcomes for Aboriginal people Facilitator: Ms Michelle Dickson Lead: Ms Sandra Bailey This workshop will use practical examples of knowledge mobilisation and co-production in Aboriginal health research. A panel of experienced Aboriginal researchers will share insights on successful strategies and how to overcome challenges.
	Researcher – policy partnerships for knowledge mobilisation: Access 3 Policy Translation Forum. Presenter: Fiona Robards	Using deliberative dialogues to engage policy makers. Presenter: Katherine Boydell
	Models for approaching research knowledge mobilisation: at the beginning, or in the middle? Presenter: Jennifer Thompson	Measuring organisational capacity to use research: development and use of 'Research Check-up'. Presenter: Gai Moore
	Output oriented policy engagement: a model for advancing the use of epidemiological evidence in health policy and practice. Presenter: Emily Banks	Factors that influence the sustainability of structured allied health journal clubs. Presenter: Rachel Wenke
	Communicating evidence, partnerships between researchers and policy makers. Presenter: Helen Signy	Cochrane Knowledge Translation Strategy Presenter: Tari Turner
	Co-production and evaluation: Adopting co-production principles for "co-evaluation" and assessing co-production outcomes. Presenter: Anne Redman	Translating research to policy at the regional level: the evolving role of the Asia Pacific Observatory on Health Systems and Policies. Presenter: Krishna Hort

	Participatory dynamic simulation modelling for knowledge mobilisation in public health policy. Presenter: Louise Freebairn	Public knowledge infrastructure and publishing systems for knowledge mobilisation. Presenter: Amanda Lawrence
1.10pm	Lunch
2.00pm	Innovation as Usual Inaugural Seminar – An Initiative of the Agency for Clinical Innovation Keynote address: Dr Ian Scott, Director Department of Internal Medicine and Clinical Epidemiology at Princess Alexandra Hospital, Brisbane Panel discussion chaired by Dr Jean-Frederic Levesque, Chief Executive, NSW Agency for Clinical Innovation, with: Professor Nicholas Mays, Dr Scott, and Ms Erica Kneipp, Assistant Secretary, Australian Government Department of Health
3.30pm	Afternoon break
4.00pm	Concurrent session 2
	2A Knowledge mobilisation in health practice Chair: Ms Sian Rudge	2B Workshop: Pop-up Community of Practice: How to be better together Lead: Associate Professor Alexandra Martiniuk This workshop will clarify participants’ knowledge mobilisation needs through a lively facilitated discussion. Participants will identify potential solutions to overcome roadblocks or obstacles encountered in mobilising knowledge	2C Workshop: Knowledge brokering to bridge the gap between policy and research Leads: Professor Fiona Blyth and Ms Gai Moore This workshop will use group work and role play to explore the role of knowledge brokers in clarifying policymakers’ research questions. It will introduce techniques for eliciting and interpreting critical information to guide researchers who undertake policy driven research programs
	Translating process improvement knowledge into practice: Communities of practice, value-creation narratives and clinician engagement. Presenter: Adamina Ivcovici
	Exploring the utilisation of evidence and evaluating its impact in health service delivery. Presenter: Gillian Yap
	Using the bush telegraph for more effective knowledge exchange in Western NSW. Presenter: Alice Munro
	Knowledge brokering activities to improve allied health clinicians’ research engagement. Presenter: Sharon Mickan HealthPathways – Mobilising evidence-based practice across the health system. Presenter: Jane Gray
	Impact of a post-donation SMS on blood donor retention: findings from a trial and national roll out. Presenter: Carley Gemelli
6.00pm	Cocktail event at the Heritage Atrium, Hyatt Regency Sydney

CONFERENCE DAY TWO Thursday 5 July

7.30am	Registrations open
9.00am	Welcome and introduction to day 2 Professor Don Nutbeam, Senior Adviser, Sax Institute
9.15am	Knowledge mobilisation for system change Keynote address: Professor Andy Bindman, University of California, San Francisco Panel discussion chaired by Professor Sally Redman: with Professor Bindman; Mr Alex King, NSW Department of Premier and Cabinet; and Professor Jane Hall, University of Technology, Sydney
10.45am	Morning break
11.15am	The international experience: innovations and learnings Keynote address: Dr Abdul Ghaffar, Executive Director, Alliance for Health Policy and Systems Research, WHO Headquarters Panel discussion chaired by Dr Stephanie Williams, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade: with Dr Ghaffar; Professor Fadi El-Jardali, American University of Beirut; and Dr Seye Abimbola, University of Sydney
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Concurrent session 3
	3A Building individual and organisational capacity to use research in decision making Chair: Professor Sanchia Aranda	3B Knowledge mobilisation and social care Chair: Julie Byles	3C Impact assessment: A tool to encourage knowledge mobilisation and measure research impact Lead: Shanti Ramanathan
	A strategic approach to the generation and use of population health research across NSW Health. Presenter: Danielle Campbell	Measuring what counts: The NSW Human Services Outcomes Framework. Presenter: Melissa Burgess
	Research and evaluation capability building: how NSW Health activities reflect the evidence Presenter: Barry Edwards	Voices of the Expert, Clinician and Client: Stories of Hope and Healing Podcast. Presenter: Chelsea Leach
	The development, implementation, and evaluation of vasovagal reaction prevention education in routine blood collection practice. Presenter: Amanda Thijsen	Wicked problems and messy data: learnings from knowledge mobilisation around homelessness Presenter: Lisa Wood
	Evaluation of a short course designed to build the capacity of early career researchers to engage in research partnerships with policy agencies Presenter: Hannah Tait	'In their own voice': learnings from a photovoice evaluation of an Aboriginal Heart Health evaluation. Presenter: Shannen Vallesi
	Promoting research mobilisation: An approach to measuring research capacity	Transforming implicit knowledge into collective knowledge for mobilisation using co-production methodologies: in	Working in groups, participants will apply FAIT, a Framework to Assess the Impact of Translational health research, to their own or to a facilitator-provided project and develop a logic model to map the pathway to research impact. Experienced practitioners will facilitate the activity with opportunity for joint learning amongst participants.

	and culture among allied health professionals. Presenter: Sharon Mickan	pedagogical practice in the formative preschool years. Presenter: Heather Morris
	Can we increase the capacity of policy agencies to use research evidence? Findings from SPIRIT Presenter: Anna Williamson
3.00pm	Afternoon break
3.15pm	Knowledge mobilisation – what can we learn from success? Panel discussion with: Professor Nicholas Mays; Professor Andy Bindman; Conjoint Associate Professor Sarah Thackway, Executive Director Centre for Epidemiology and Evidence, NSW Ministry of Health; and Mr Danny O'Connor, CE, Western Sydney Local Health District
4.15pm	Close Professor Sally Redman, AO		