

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Thank you for your interest in The Sax Institute's (Institute) webinar. By purchasing tickets to our live webinar training sessions, you agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions:

1. The purchase of webinar attendance is for use by the purchaser or named participant only.
2. Payment must be received in full prior to participating in the webinar.
3. All cancellations must be made no later than thirty (30) days prior to the start of the event. In such instances, a refund less an administration fee of 10% of fees paid or payable will be made. The Institute is not obliged to refund any fees paid where cancellations occur after this time. No refunds will be payable for non or partial attendance.
4. The Institute will accept a substitute attendee for the event if notification of such substitution is received at least 48 hours before the event. Any substitution after this time is at the discretion of the Institute and may be refused.
5. The Institute reserves the right to cancel or reschedule any event, workshop or training program conducted by it. Where the Institute cancels a program or event, the Institute will refund 100% of the fees or provide a credit note for fees paid but will have no other liability. Where the Institute reschedules an event, it will provide you reasonable notice (being not less than fourteen (14) days) of the revised date for the event. Any refunds due will be provided within 30 days.
6. The Institute will not be responsible or liable for any failure to perform or delay in the performance of any obligation that is caused by events, acts, accidents, omissions or circumstances outside its reasonable control ('Force Majeure Event'). The Institute's performance is deemed to be suspended for the period of any Force Majeure Event.
7. Intellectual property rights in all electronic or printed materials, including presentation slides, podcasts and webcasts (Materials) are owned and retained by the Institute unless otherwise specified. No content may be copied, uploaded, posted, displayed or reproduced in any way without the Institute's prior permission. The materials and replay of webinars are for use by the purchaser only and should not be forwarded on to third parties. To the extent permitted by law, the Institute makes no representation and bears no liability to any person or organisation as to the accuracy or suitability of the Materials for any particular purpose.
8. Except as explicitly provided for within these Terms and Conditions, no refunds are payable in relation to any event or program conducted by the Institute. The Institute's maximum liability is limited to the sum total of the fees paid in relation to the event. Under no circumstances will the Institute be responsible for any consequential or indirect damage or loss of any kind.
9. These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of the States of New South Wales. The Institute reserves the right to revise and amend these Terms and Conditions from time to time.
10. The webinar is a virtual event facility that includes a feature that allows audio and any documents and other materials exchanged or viewed during the session to be recorded. By joining a session, you automatically consent to such recordings. If you do not consent to the recording, please contact the Institute to discuss your concerns in good time prior to the date of the webinar.
